(Definition of fundraising from the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary & Thesaurus © Cambridge University Press)

Anyone can fundraise. There are just a few sensible rules over handling money from selling raffle tickets for example. This would be a good opportunity to ask students whether they have done it before e.g. a sponsored run or event or know anyone who has.

See slide 5 for reference to the WRVS becoming a charity. Without donations the WRVS now RVS would not survive. RVS needs donations to be able to run services for older people. Many people fundraise for fun, they enjoy helping others. See 'RVS its future in our hands' resource for motivations for volunteering.

Crown Service: When WVS was founded (see www.royalvoluntaryservice.org.uk/Uploads/Documents/About%20us/origins_of_wvs_2013.pdf) it was formed as a Crown Service which meant it was working for/responsible to Her Majesty's Government.

Slide 4: The purpose of the report was to review the role of WRVS in the light of its "...objectives, methods and achievements, with particular reference to the changing social and economic role of women and services ability to continue to mobilise a large volunteer force..."

Use these to go through the legalities of fundraising. Talk about why have rules, what would happen without them.
